THE POINT

The Point, the earliest known house in Cambridge, built between 1706 and 1710 was located just off of High Street at the intersection of the Choptank River and Cambridge Creek, until torn down in the 20 century. The oldest part of the house was built by John Kirk, Lord Baltimore's agent for Dorchester County, who owned a large amount of land in Cambridge. Additions to one and one-half story frame house were made by Robert Goldsborough around 1770, by James Steele around 1796, and by a Dr. William R. Hayward in the late 19th century.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

History

The Point, formerly at the intersection of the Choptank River and the Cambridge Creek, was the oldest remaining dwelling of the original houses in Cambridge until torn down around the 1940's. The larger part of the house was built between 1706 and 1710 by John Kirk, Lord Baltimore's agent for Dorchester County, who owned a considerable amount of land in Cambridge. additional rooms were built by Robert Goldsborough about 1770, and the addition of two large rooms and a large square hall was made by James Steele when he acquired the property in 1796. Almost a century later, Dr. William R. Hayward further improved the property by the addition of a library. The Point was inherited from Col. John Kirk by his only daughter who married Rev. Thomas Howell, the first rector of historic Old Trinity at Church Creek. The Point was long owned by the descendants of Charles Goldsborough, James Steele purchasing it from William Goldsborough. One of his sons, Henry Maynadier Steele, married the daughter of Francis Scott Key, and to him his father bequeathed The Point. Removing to Anne Arundel County, Mr. Steele, in 1822, sold the place to William W. Eccleston, Register of Wills for Dorchester County. It then passed to his widow, who left it to her daughter Mrs. Eliza Hayward, wife of Dr. William R. Hayward, commissioner of the land office from 1870 to 1884. It was next owned by the Hayward's daughter and son-in-law Col. and Mrs. Clement Sullivane. Later it was owned by Governor Emerson C. Harrington.

This site is significant as the earliest known house in Cambridge.

Built in 1709 by John Kirk, the Point is believed to have been the first house in Cambridge. About 1770, two additional rooms were built by Robert Goldsborough, a member of the Continental Congress. In 1796 two more rooms were added by James Steele, then the owner of the property; all additions were made in the architectural style of the oldest part of the dwelling. William Chatfield of Cincinatti purchased the interior paneling and moved it to Ohio; the house itself was demolished in the late 1930s.
